DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to's response filed on 05/08/2006.
2. Claims 1-22 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

4. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Kleiman (U.S. Pat. No. 5,959,945) in view of Downs et al (U.S. Pat. No. 6,226,618).

As per claims 1-22 Kleiman substantially discloses a music distribution to local electronic jukeboxes see., abstract, lines 1 and 2 (which is readable as Applicant's claimed invention wherein said a business management), comprising:

Obtaining information about earnings and expenses based on expenses incurred by content providers supplying users wit recording devices compatible with contents offered by the providers, on content subscription fees paid by said users for receiving said content, and on earnings derived from services and/or advertisements included in said contents, determining said services and/or advertisements to be provided to said users based on said users viewing history data, controlling fees to be paid for said services and/or advertisements in accordance with said information about said earnings and expenses thus obtained, judging whether or a share of the earnings possibly may be paid back, and initiating a process to decide on items applicable to pay back when that pay back is judges possible (see., abstract, lines 9-17, col 4, lines 21-31, col 6, lines 22-40, specifically, figs 1, 8A, and 9).

Kleiman fails to disclose the limitation wherein said “obtaining information about earnings (or balance) and expenses, and controlling fee to be paid for said services ”. Downs discloses an electronic content delivery system in which a clearinghouse uses a pricing (or fee) information to track the balances (or earnings) of the electronic digital content (see., abstract, col 45, lines 53-64). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art the time the invention was made to modify the teachings of Kleiman and Looney by including the limitation detailed above as taught by Looney because this would provide the music distribution of Kleiman and Looney with the advantage of maintaining account balances for the electronic digital store (s).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 6, 12, and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

RESPONSE TO ARGUMENTS

6. Applicant's arguments filed on 05/08/2006 have been fully considered but they are moot in view of new ground (s) of rejection.

Conclusion

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Pierre E. Elisca whose telephone number is 571 272 6706. The examiner can normally be reached on 6:30 to 5:00.
